VIRGINIA COMMONWEALTH UNIVERSITY

Dear Class of 2018:

Virginia Commonwealth University takes pride in the work it does to educate, create, research, heal and serve. The education students receive here is relevant not only to what is happening today, but also to whatever may be in the future.

Today we celebrate, as you, the Class of 2018, become graduates of VCU. Your success at one of America's great public research universities signifies that you have done more than complete your courses and receive grades. Your degree signifies years of hard work and dedication to refining your skills and acquiring new ones. Your dedication to academic excellence will translate well to whatever you choose to do in the future.

For 180 years, your alma mater has focused on preparing students for a future as creators, educators, healers, innovators and entrepreneurs. As a graduate of VCU, I hope you will remember that your opportunities are without limit because your potential is limitless. On behalf of the faculty, staff, students and proud alumni of Virginia Commonwealth University, I congratulate you on the remarkable achievement of your Commencement. We are incredibly proud of you and wish you the brightest future possible

Best wishes,

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

2018 Recipient Christy S. Coleman

The Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters is Virginia Commonwealth University's highest form of recognition. Presented by the president at Commencement, it recognizes those individuals who have made outstanding contributions to society through scholarship, public service, humanitarianism, science and art.

Christy Coleman grew up in Williamsburg, Virginia, and earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from Hampton University. She currently serves as CEO of the American Civil War Museum, located in Richmond and Appomattox, Virginia. In this role, she has been instrumental in furthering discussion around the Civil War, its legacies and its relevance to our lives today — not only in the Richmond region, but also around the nation.

She began her career at the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation. During her time with CWF she had increasing levels of responsibility, finally serving as director of historic programs, responsible for all programming and tours in the Historic Area. In 1999 she left to become president and CEO of the Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History in Detroit, Michigan. In 2008, Coleman was named president and CEO of the American Civil War Center at Historic Tredegar.

In 2013 she helped orchestrate the merger of ACWC with the Museum of the Confederacy to create the American Civil War Museum. She has served on a number of local commissions and national boards, and strives to make museum experiences meaningful to diverse communities. A tireless advocate for the power of museums, narrative disruption and inclusivity, she has been an innovator and leader in the history museum field.

Edward A. Wayne Medal

The Edward A. Wayne Medal was established in 1971 to honor individuals who have made outstanding contributions or provided exemplary services to Virginia Commonwealth University. Presented by the president at Commencement, the medal is named in honor of Edward A. Wayne, who was chair of the commission that led to the establishment of VCU in 1968 by the Virginia General Assembly. Mr. Wayne served as the university's first vice rector.

Since 1978, George P. Emerson Jr. has been president of the Emerson Companies, a real estate development group in Chester, Virginia. He holds an undergraduate degree from the VCU School of Business. He is past chair and a current member of the Massey Cancer Center Advisory Board and a member of the MCV Foundation, VCU Real Estate Foundation and VCU Health System Authority boards.

Darlene B. Emerson received a degree in nursing from John Tyler Community College in 1976 and worked as a registered nurse for 18 years. She is a former board member of the First Tee of Greater Richmond. The Emersons are members of the Make It Real Campaign for VCU Steering Committee, and both also serve on the Chester YMCA Board, with Darlene as chair. They belong to Chester United Methodist Church where George serves on the board and Darlene chairs the Care Committee. Darlene also serves on the Lucy Corr Foundation Board.

Two of the most active supporters of Massey Cancer Center, the Emersons founded the Highlands-Massey Classic in 2006 after George was diagnosed with throat cancer. (He is now cancer-free after being successfully treated at Massey.) The tournament is an annual fundraiser — one of Massey's largest — dedicated to eradicating breast, head and neck cancer. In 2012, Massey dedicated the Highlands-Massey Classic Research Wing in the Goodwin Research Laboratory in recognition of the classic having raised more than $2.6 million. The couple has volunteered countless hours working on many fundraising efforts at the cancer center.

The Emersons have also generously supported the schools of Business and Medicine, VCU Health and VCU Athletics. Through two decades of philanthropy and volunteerism, they have made schools, research centers and care units across VCU better and stronger. We are grateful for the lifelong impact the Emersons have made on our university.

The Emersons reside in Chester and have three daughters and seven grandchildren.

Edward A. Wayne Medal

The Edward A. Wayne Medal was established in 1971 to honor individuals who have made outstanding contributions or provided exemplary services to Virginia Commonwealth University. Presented by the president at Commencement, the medal is named in honor of Edward A. Wayne, who was chair of the commission that led to the establishment of VCU in 1968 by the Virginia General Assembly. Mr. Wayne served as the university's first vice rector.

Harold E. Greer Jr., Ph.D., is an award-winning professor emeritus of history in the College of Humanities and Sciences at Virginia Commonwealth University. Hired in 1968, just after Richmond Professional Institute and the Medical College of Virginia merged to form VCU, he was the university's first professor of Latin American history. He was the recipient of multiple awards for teaching and advising excellence and was active in student life as an adviser to student organizations and as founder of the VCU chapter of national honor society Phi Eta Sigma. He holds a bachelor's degree and a Ph.D. in history from the University of Alabama.

Laura B. Greer taught in the VCU School of Business for five years. She was program head and professor of office technology at John Tyler Community College in Chester, Virginia, where she taught for 22 years. She earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Alabama.

In 2012, the pair endowed the Harold and Laura Greer Scholarship, which is awarded to an outstanding undergraduate history major who has completed two courses in Latin American history. Last year, they pledged $1 million to create the Dr. and Mrs. Harold Greer Jr. Distinguished Professorship in Latin American History, one of the largest gifts ever to the College of Humanities and Sciences. Their generosity was rooted in their desire to encourage the study of Latin American history and to help make education more accessible to deserving students. The Greers have also been steadfast supporters of VCU Athletics since 1968.

The couple's dedication to VCU and its students through more than 50 years of engagement is extraordinary. Their devoted service contributes to the prominence of the university and leaves a meaningful and lasting impact on our community.

The Greers reside in Richmond and have two children and five grandchildren.

2018 Recipients

*Laura B. and

Presidential Medallion

The Presidential Medallion was established in 1984 by the Virginia Commonwealth University Board of Visitors to honor the outstanding contributions of members of the university community. Presented by the president at Commencement, the award recognizes these individuals for extraordinary achievement in learning and commitment to the mission of VCU.

Jan Chlebowsky, Ph.D., served Virginia Commonwealth University for 39 years. During his tremendous career, he not only committed himself to the development of his students, but also to the development of the university, where he held numerous titles and participated in or chaired more than 100 committees and task forces.

He was a professor in the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology and the School of Medicine's associate dean for graduate education. He derived great pleasure from his important role of overseeing the training of graduate students and was passionate about ensuring they received all the attention and support they needed.

Chlebowsky was a strong advocate for programs that provided growth and scientific enrichment for students. He was key in securing funding of a large National Institutes of Health initiative, and as director of that program, helped bridge master's to doctoral training between Virginia State University, Hampton University and VCU to increase the diversity of students and faculty in the sciences. In addition, he served as faculty sponsor of the graduate student organization Women in Science, and also directed the university's international educational partnership with the University of the West of England since 1987 when the program began.

He was a founding member of the VCU School of Medicine's Professionalism Committee and taught a graduate course in his area of specialty while teaching significant blocks in other biochemistry graduate courses, as well.

Chlebowsky earned his Ph.D. from Case Western Reserve University. He completed postdoctoral training as a research associate at University College London and as a research fellow at Yale University.

He passed away on March 10, 2018, at the age of 74, leaving behind a legacy of remarkable commitment and integrity.

Academic Costume

The academic costume worn at American college exercises derives from the Middle Ages. The oldest universities of northern Europe, such as Paris and Oxford, grew out of church schools, and both faculty and students were regarded in the Middle Ages as a part of the clergy. They wore clerical habits, largely borrowed from the monastic dress of that day, not just on special occasions but as their regular attire.

The head covering of the academic costume developed from the skull cap worn by the clergy in cold weather to protect the tonsured head. In the universities, the skull cap acquired a point on top, which evolved into a tassel. The bonnet with tassel is still worn by degree holders of European universities. In America, it has been replaced by the familiar mortar board, which still retains the medieval tassel.

The hood (the medieval caputium) was originally a covering worn over the head in bad weather, otherwise dropped on the shoulders as the monk's cowl. At first it was worn by faculty and students alike, but in the early 16th century it was restricted to graduates, thus becoming the mark of a degree holder. Today, each college has its distinctive hood lining by which its graduates may be recognized in academic processions. Graduates from Virginia Commonwealth University may wear a hood showing a black chevron on gold background.

The gown comes from the medieval robe and seems to have been borrowed from the habit of the Benedictine monks. In the Middle Ages, undergraduates, bachelors and masters could be distinguished by the simplicity or intricacy of their gowns. The doctor's gown was often furred, which survives today in the ornamentation found on the doctoral gown. Usually the gown is black, but some colleges have gowns of different colors.

The wide velvet borders extending down the front of the doctoral gown, the velvet bars on the sleeves, and the borders of most hoods are colored according to the scholarly field of the wearer.

Recipients of Degrees

Because of rigid time requirements, this program must be printed before the final list of degree candidates and final graduation honor status for undergraduate students can be determined.

The exclusion of the name of a student is not to be taken as indication of official status as a nongraduate, nor is the inclusion of a name of a student to be taken as certification of official status as a graduate. Only undergraduate students are eligible for honors designations.

These designations do not apply to the degrees received by graduate students.

Virginia Commonwealth University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action university providing access to education and employment without regard to age, race, color, national origin, gender, religion, sexual orientation, veteran's status, political affiliation or disability.

Alma Mater

In March 2016, VCU Alumni's board of governors approved Virginia Commonwealth University's first alma mater, "We Gather Here." Written by Lemont "Monty" Kier, Ph.D., a longtime faculty member, and his son, Andy Kier, a 1990 VCU graduate, the school song honors the university's commitment to providing students with experiences that they carry with them beyond their years on campus.

"We Gather Here"

Lyrics: Monty Kier

Music: Andy Kier

We gather here, our voices raise,
of VCU we sing our praise,
the Black and Gold our colors show,
diversity and value grow.
We've learned so much beyond each class,
the joy of friendship will not pass.
So much in life is mem'ry borne,
of VCU they'll not be shorn.

The mem'ries of a campus walk,
so many friends, we stop to talk,
the friendships here were made to last,
they're in our minds though years have passed.
The seasons pass, the years roll by,
from VCU the reason's why
we are enriched from values learned,
they bring us joy that we have earned.

Next year again we will be here
to see our school and give a cheer.
So VCU keep all that is great,
you've brought us joy that is our fate.
So come let us sing of VCU,
with ev'ry verse we will renew
the mem'ries from our campus time, each one embedded in a rhyme.

Dear graduate,

On behalf of VCU Alumni, I am privileged and honored to congratulate you on this wonderful occasion. Although you likely received support and encouragement from your families and friends along the way, this is a personal achievement that is a tribute to your hard work and perseverance.

As you bring this chapter of your academic career to a close, I hope you will take a moment to recognize the opportunities that your university and alumni organization have provided to prepare you for this next step in your journey. You might be leaving campus, but you are not leaving alone. As a graduate, you join a community of more than 190,000 alumni throughout the world who engage with their communities and their alma mater to build on the strong foundation established by our past and present alumni organizations and leaders.

Your relationship with your alma mater can enhance and impact your life long after you graduate. This is an exciting time to become a part of VCU Alumni. Our inclusive membership organization welcomes all graduates, and guided by a new strategic plan, ELEVATE, we are amping up the alumni experience through increased programming in areas of interest to you. No matter where life takes you, VCU Alumni provides opportunities to stay engaged with the university and with your fellow classmates.

My wish for each of you is that you realize your full potential and, in doing so, use your significant talents and energies to support and strengthen your communities, your alumni organization and your university.

Be proud of your university, because we are proud of you.

Yours for VCU,

Virginia Commonwealth University

What we now know as Virginia Commonwealth University began as two institutions: the Medical College of Virginia, established in 1838 as the medical department of Hampden-Sydney College, and the Richmond School of Social Economy, founded independently in 1917 and then becoming the Richmond division of the College of William & Mary in 1925.

The Medical College of Virginia gained independence from Hampden-Sydney in 1854 and became state-affiliated in 1860. In 1939, the College of William & Mary changed the name of its Richmond campus to Richmond Professional Institute. RPI became an independent state school in 1962.

In 1967, VCU came closer to its current state. Edward A. Wayne Sr., president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, along with city and state leaders recommended the formation of a university using resources from MCV and RPI. With the signature of Gov. Mills E. Godwin Jr., Virginia Commonwealth University came into being in 1968 with Warren W. Brandt as president.

Today, President Michael Rao, Ph.D., is the leader of VCU and VCU Health System. A premier, urban public research university, VCU has garnered $275 million in sponsored research as one of the nation's top 200 research universities. In 2016, U.S. News & World Report listed several VCU graduate and first-professional programs in the top 50 of their rankings. The School of the Arts, ranked second overall, holds a top ranking among public institutions. Among graduate and first-professional rankings, VCU's nurse anesthesia program is top in the nation. The same publication ranked VCU Medical Center's state-of-the-art care in more than 200 specialty areas among the best in the nation. A safety-net hospital, VCU Medical Center is the top hospital in the metro area and is the only Level I medical center in Central Virginia. Additionally, the medical center is ranked second in the commonwealth as the top place to seek medical care and treatment in areas ranging from organ transplantation and burn healing to head and spinal cord trauma and cancer treatment.

With an enrollment of more than 31,000 students from 102 countries in 217 degree and certificate programs — 38 of which are unique to Virginia and serve cross-disciplinary purposes — VCU also boasts educators who are nationally and internationally recognized for their excellence in the arts, business, education, engineering, the humanities, life sciences, social work and all of the health care professions. VCU employs over 2,200 full-time instructional faculty who are nationally and internationally recognized for their high-quality instruction across 11 schools and three colleges.

With campuses beyond Richmond, VCU students and faculty live and work in locations throughout the commonwealth and the world. For over a decade, students enrolled at VCU School of the Arts Qatar receive the same world-renowned education and training as students in Richmond. The School of Medicine and School of Pharmacy's collaboration with Northern Virginia's Inova Health System successfully established the VCU Inova campus and now educates third- and fourth-year medical and pharmacy students. In Charlottesville, the School of Pharmacy's second satellite location for Doctor of Pharmacy students operates at the University of Virginia Medical Center. More than 190,000 VCU alumni live worldwide, leading and positively impacting their communities.

Congratulations to all!
